Mrs. Rose Burnett was hostess to the Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Club when it met at her home on Wed., Feb. 19, at 1:30 p.m. There were nine members present and two visitors.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Shirley Tanner with a reading "Our Daily Bread". Scripture reading Psalm 143, verses 1 - 8. Lord's Prayer repeated.

State, county and district dues were collected, also "Pennies for Friendship."

Mrs. Dixie Staten, president, presided at the business meeting. She announced:

On February 27 a Leader Training Session will be held at the Extension Club Office at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday.

The training session will be held in the new office kitchen "How to Sew and Care for New Fabrics" will be the topic.

Our Federation Program chairman, Mrs. Ruth Carson, presented a program on "The Legends of Christ In Nature". She illustrated by showing pictures of the many flowers that bear the legends of Christ. She showed a sand dollar which is found along the U.S. coastline. On one side of it is the imprint of an Easter lily, and in its center is the star that guided the wise men from afar. The Christmas poinsettia is etched on the other side. There are four small nail holes in the shell, and a fifth larger one for the spear wound. It is said that if the hollow shell is broken open, out will fly five white doves of peace and good will.

Among other flowers which bear the symbol are the green holly bush, the Christmas poinsettia, the Christmas Rose, dogwood blossom, Redbud (Judas Tree) violets, Iris, and laurel. Among the most famous is the passion flower. This flower's five stamers represent Christ's wounds. The colored filaments inside the petals represent the crown of thorns, and the three styles within their broad stigmas signify the nails. The petals and sepals of the flower represent ten of the disciples and with Peter and Judas absent. The vine's tendrils recall whips with which Christ was scourged. The seed pod represents the sponge dipped in vinegar, and the lobed leaves are usually seen as the hands of his persecutor.

Mrs. Rose Burnett and Mrs. Shirley Tanner gave a demonstration on "Bread-Making using the master mix "Quick and Yeast".

Members repeated the 'Homemakers Creed". After which a social hour was held. For refreshments members enjoyed the breads, etc. and coffee that Mrs. Burnett and

Of Interest To Veterans

It's a good idea to periodically check the type of payoff plan for your beneficiary, the Veterans Administration today advised veterans holding government life insurance policies.

"All too often," the Roanoke VA Regional Office stressed, "widows of GI policyholders have been penalized following deaths of husbands who had selected small monthly payments over 36 month periods."

In some cases, veterans chose smaller payments for life more than 25 years ago, and never updated their policies, VA noted.

Veterans who now wish to switch to lump sum payments should request Form 29-336

In Memoriam

WALKER: In loving memory of our aunt, Mrs. Lucille P. Walker, who passed away one year ago today, February 21.

It was his will that she should die,
His will that we should let her go,
And we must ever bow to it.
But Oh God, we miss her so.
From Loving Niece, Carolyn 2-26-1p

WALKER - In memory of Mrs. Lucille P. Walker who passed away one year ago today, February 21.

Softly the stars are gleaming.
Upon a precious grave.
Where sleepeth with out dreaming.
One I loved but could not save.
She bid no one a last farewell.
She said goodbye to none.
Her loving heart had ceased to beat
Before I knew she had gone
She not fail to do her best.
Her heart was true and tender.
She worked hard for the ones she left.
And will always be remembered.
By the ones who loved her best.
From the loving family 2-27-1p

In rememberance of my son, Russell Mawyer, who left us February 22, 1972.

Day by day, four years have passed,
Since God called you home.
Day by day I miss you more,
There is no words can say
Little did we know when that day dawned
What sorrow that day would bring.
The end was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

The voice is mute and stilled,
The heart that loved us well and true
And bitter was the trial to part,
From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten dear Russell,
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

Keep Russell, Jesus in thy keeping
Till we reach that golden shore,
Then oh master let us have Russell,
And love him like we did before.
Sadly missed by mother, dad, children, Lindy, Mr. Tehell, sisters and brothers and loving friends. 2-27-1p
